Obituary

Andrew Collier was the fifth child born, January 20, 1987, to the union of the late Henry Lee Collier and Darlene Dantzler Collier. Andrew was named for his great grandfather, the late, Andrew King. Andrew professed Christ at an early age, and he was devoted, kind, and caring.

Andrew grew up in Brandon, Mississippi. He was previously employed by Co-op Landscaping Services, Western Auto, and Swift Transportation Co. Conway Trucking Company was his last employer. He was at Grady Memorial Hospital in Atlanta, Georgia when God called him home.

He was preceded in death by his father Henry Lee Collier, Sr., and his grandparents: Samuel Collier, Toy Dantzler, Bertha Myles Dantzler; Great grandmother Alberta Gates King, Fred Dantzler, and Caroline Hales Dantzler. He leaves to cherish his memories his loving mother, Darlene Collier and grandmother Annie Pearl Collier both of Brandon, MS; his siblings Henry L. Collier, Jr, Drew, MS; James Collier, Brandon, MS, Rena Collier, Long Beach, CA, Antonio Collier, Greenville, MS, and Demon and Jeremiah Collier; his nephews Tike and Jallarrius; his niece Ta-keyia, his special friends: Darrien "Wolf Dog" McLemore Sr. and Andrew "Biscuit" Sistrunk, Caleb Hill, and a host of uncles, aunts, cousins, relatives, and friends.

Words of Encouragement

YOU may tie your shoestrings in the morning, but the UNDERTAKER may untie them before night.

ARE YOU READY to meet your Maker?

IF YOU DIE AND GO TO HELL, WHO CARES?

Answer no. 1 John 3:16, God Cares

No. 2 Math 18:11, Jesus Cares

No 3 Luke 15:17, All People in Heaven Care

No. 4 Rev. 22:17 All Saved People Care

No. 5 Luke 16: 19-31, All People in Hell Care

No. 6 Romans 1:16, I Care

Now, Friend, The Most Important Question is

DO YOU CARE?

Retrieved last week from a card in Andrew's wallet

To our baby brother

There is nothing on this earth, like a baby brother.
We were blessed to watch you grow,
and enjoy you when you rolled in the snow.
We laughed when you couldn't keep up,
and we were proud when you passed us by.
We know if you were here today, you'd have a big story to tell.
We'll remember you for the fun times we shared.
But, most of all, we're content to have had you in our lives.

Henry (Junior), James, Rena, and Antonio Collier

Rest in Peace Andrew
Love always Demon & Jeremiah Collier

A Mother's Tribute

Those Unknown Places

Lately each morning when I wake,
my soul suffers from severe heartache.
I know that God's will must be done,
but oh! how much I miss my son.
Andrew was a long distant truck driver.
He had the opportunity to see America,
while he was transporting goods across this great nation.
He called me often to bring warm words and cheer.
He often described places and sites,
and said he wished we could be near.
He found so much joy in his travels,
and tomorrow when I wake, I'll remember,
the joy in his voice when he happened to see those unknown places.
